

THE BEACON

A Guiding Light to the Next Generation

Inside

Page 2
Today's Verse,
Most Teacher
Like Day
 James 1: 19

Page 3
Student
Interview
 Interview of David Kim

Page 4
Faculty &
Soccer News
 A talk about Mrs.
 Hendrickson and Soccer games
 students

Page 5-6
Soccer Club
 SCS Soccer result

Page 7
Sudoku

Spirit Day in October 29 : Following Teachers Day

Spirit Week is a typical American high school event week. In this week, students and teachers wear costumes or make-up according to themes that are assigned each day. For example, if Monday is Superhero Day, people dress like their own favorite superhero. For some days, it may have a game day. Its purpose is to break the boring, repetitive, merry-go-round-like study-in-school days to be fun and spirited. Doesn't having fun with your friends sound better than having fun with your textbook?

Like any other American high schools, our school also had a fun event on October 29th, except that it was a Spirit Day instead of a Spirit Week. The theme for the day was Follow your Teacher Day. Some boy students dressed up like Mr. Hendrickson, Mr. May, or Mr. Moorehead. Some girl students dressed up like Mrs. Hendrickson, Miss Weldy, or Mrs. Park. Though it was hard to get a grasp of how to look like a teacher, students showed their effort to look like one of their teachers. At the last two periods of class, the Student Council prepared several fun games for the students: Gather-in-Groups, Hodgepodge, and Jeopardy. In Gather-in-Groups, students had to form a group with the number of what the game judge called. Hodgepodge was a game with a mix of several trivial games, such as spinning 10 times with an elephant nose stance, Rock-Paper-Scissor, or Throw paper balls in the bin. Jeopardy was a quiz game based on the American quiz show Jeopardy! with topics about our schools teachers.

After all the wild craziness with the games, the students had a chapel by our school chaplain, David Park. Though it was his first time giving a sermon about Christian teenagers, he said he gave his best to preach to his fellow students. He realized how hard it was to stand in front of a mass of students and teachers to give a speech, especially about the gospel. He had to talk carefully not to say anything wrong, because it was God's Word. Despite the inexperience, he said he will prepare a better speech next Spirit Day if possible.

-David Park

Most teacher-like Students

Our Spirit Day was not a big success, but everyone seemed to have enjoyed it. Why was it not successful? Because, only a few people had been actually thinking about what the teachers wear and dressed like them. Therefore, let's call the students who got the "Look-a-Likes" awards, great, whether they looked like the teachers or not.

The most popular teachers who were followed by many students were Mr. May and Mrs. Hendrickson. You may have seen three boys who got messy beards on their faces, Philip and Davids. Philip got the "Most-Teacher-Like" award for dressing like Mr. May with a blue cardigan and a red tie, and Mr. May was the "Most-Philip-Like." You may have also seen several girls who wore long skirts and carried forks with them. Anna, Grace, Angela, and Emily were the girls who dressed like Mrs. H. All of them did their best to follow Mrs. H, but nobody could beat Emily. She got her hair braided, wore a long blue skirt, a pink striped blouse, and a necklace made of a fork. Emily got the award for dressing like Mrs. H. John Choi followed Mr. Velasco, and he carried a chopstick all the day long instead of a baton. Ayana followed Mrs. V. having a pink bear ride on her back.

Eddy wore just a normal SCS T-shirt like Mr. Moorehead wears everyday. Miriam also wore a SCS T-shirt with a checkered skirt to dress up like Miss. Weldy. Esther and Jackie dressed like Mrs. Park and they looked like carrier women. There were some guys who dressed like Mr. Schmidt, but no one could figure out who they were. David's team got the honor to win this Spirit Day, mostly because they got the most teacher-like-students

-Emily Bae

Today's Verse

James 1: 19

So then, my beloved brethren, let every man be swift to hear, slow to speak, slow to wrath.

"I just wish that person would listen to my story." Today, listening is one of the most important skills in our lives. Why is so? Listening has three beneficial effects. First, "swift to hear." When we listen to others' stories, we can not only soothe them but also gain credit. Second, "slow to speak." If we take time to speak words, judging whether the words are good to use or not, we will make fewer mistakes and thus increase the effectiveness of our words. Third, "slow to wrath." Speaking when we are angry only increase our anger. If we are swift to hear and slow to speak, we will be able to get rid of our anger and have time to ask God for His love.

God does not just give us power to do all things. We must put in our efforts. Then, God will add strength on the top of our effort.

-Chief Editor, Philip Hong

Student Interview

David Kim: 8th

The Beacon had the opportunity to interview our second hero, David Kim. This brilliant soccer player in 8th grade has many unique experiences.

Q1. How did you come to SCS? What do you expect of our school?

God put me in this school by the advice of my mother's friend. I came here to learn, and I hope SCS helps me to learn not only intellectually but spiritually.

Q2. Please tell us your testimony.

My parents are both Christians, so I have been under the influence of Christianity from a young age. As I grew older, my curiosity about Christianity and God increased, and finally when I was 13 years old, God answered my prayers by meeting me through John 14.

Q3. What is your favorite chapter of the Bible?

Although there are many verses that have touched me, John 14, which helped me to meet God, is my favorite chapter.

Q4. What is your favorite food?

I love Bi-bim-bab and pizza.

Q5. What is your favorite subject?

I like science, and I look forward to taking Biology in a few years.

Q6. What is your goal in life?

I want to live a life that glorifies God. My future career plan is to be a Biologist.

Q7. What is your hobby?

I like playing soccer.

Q8. What are your feelings as MVP (Game #2)? How do you play soccer so well?

I felt great, because this is the first time that I have been chosen as MVP. I practice a lot, and I've been playing soccer for 3 years.

Q9. Where have you traveled?

I went to Mongolia 3 times to visit my father's friend, who is a missionary. I spent 6 months there, and learned English and Chinese. I even learned how to ride a horse!

Words from Chief Editor

"He is a nice soccer player. I cannot fathom his depth of talent in playing soccer."

-Samuel Lee 3

SCS Faculty

Mrs. Hendrickson

A very experienced and generous teacher, Mrs. Hendrickson teaches Grammar, Literature, and World Studies to the Junior High and High School students. She has been teaching students for many years, which allows her to teach in a flexible and passionate manner.

Mrs. Hendrickson's dream since seventh grade was to teach English. In order to achieve her goal, she attended Bob Jones University and received both Bachelor's and Master's Degree in English education. Since the beginning of her teaching career, she has taught English for many years in different Christian schools.

Throughout her teaching career, she also has given much advice to students. She said, "The advice that I would give to SCS students is simple - find God's will and do it."

This is her first year teaching in Korea. She is eager to learn more about Korea, so she has visited different places in Seoul to experience more of this country. Although it is her first year, she likes many things about SCS. "The things I like most about SCS are that students are enthusiastic and helpful, and that teachers also help each other."

-Michael Kim

<FC Johnson smashed Johnson United>

BORAMAE- On the 29th of October, boys from 7th to 12th grades, Pastor Goh, and Mr. Moorehead went to Boramae Park to play soccer. It was the first game for Benjamin Park, Andrew Kim, Samuel Choi, and YJ Chung who was expected to play well since he used to play in a soccer team.

Robert Yu and Justin Jang said that they were not coming because of Taekwondo audition, but they came. We were glad about that. It was also good to see Matthew Sung, David Oh, and Daniel Kim after a long time. They didn't come last Tuesday, but they came back this game.

Nevertheless, it was sad that David Park didn't play since he was sick. Edward Jung didn't come because he had his private problem. The blue team was likely to win again since they had better players and won last game. The white team scored first at the 14th minute, but they gave the blue the tie goal as Paul Kim scored at the 33rd minute. Although the ball actually hit his elbow and went into the goal, it was accepted as a goal. Moreover, because Daniel Kim spoke Korean during the break time, the white lost a goal keeper. The white had to play without him for five minutes, so the white could lose a lot of goals.

On the contrary, they kept the goal well, losing no goal.

Isaac Cho, who was normally excellent at dribbling and scoring goals was not good today. He and his team players were marked by the white team's defenders. Also, they scored six more goals.

Especially Joshua Kim's shots were awesome. They defeated the blue by 8 to 1. It was the biggest point spread up to now.

-Eddy Yim

Pictures about the event are on the next page.*

SCS Soccer Club

Oct. 29th 2010

White (FC Johnson) 8
Blue (Johnson Utd.) 1

() : Time [] : those who assisted

Isaac Cho's unstoppable shot

<Missing Players>
 Edward Jung (Blue)

White (FC Johnson)	Blue (Johnson Utd.)
Philip Hong (69) John Choi (14, 36, 40, 59) Joshua Kim (45, 55)	Paul Kim (33)

Man of the Match : Michael Kim
 Assistant Coach : David Park
 Photographer : David Park

Position Lists

White (FC Johnson)	Blue (Johnson Utd.)
GK: Daniel Kim	Gk: Mr. Moorehead
DF: Edward Yim Samuel Choi Robert Yu David Lee Matthew Sung	DF: Israel Kim Samuel Lee Benjamin Park Noah Lee
MF: Joseph Oh YJ Chung Joshua Kim Philip Hong	MF: Samuel Oh Daniel Seo David Kim Justin Jung Andrew Kim Elijah Park
FW: David Oh John Choi Pastor Goh	FW: Michael Kim Isaac Cho Paul Kim

Flying like a butterfly, kicking like a horse, and regarding Justin as an oxygen... Nothing can stop me... excluding my mom...

<Playing with the Jo'bulani>

BORAMAE- This game was particularly exciting since we played with Jo'bulani, the official match ball of the final match of 2010 South Africa FIFA World Cup. Everybody was curious about it. With great expectations, all of us headed to Boramae. Some people changed teams. Edward Yim, Joshua Kim, and David Lee moved to the blue team. Mr. May put Edward Yim in the blue team because the blue didn't have enough defenders. Justin Jang, Isaac Cho, Elijah Park, Andrew Kim, and Benjamin Park went to the white team. Benjamin Lee joined us. On account of the Jo'bulani, many awesome goals were made.

In the 3rd minute, Daniel Seo took a shot near the half-line and scored a goal. In the 36th minute, John Choi passed the ball to Justin Jang by heading, and Justin Jang scored by a volley shot. In the 42nd minute, Joshua Kim passed to Samuel Oh directly after the kick off, and Samuel Oh scored a goal in one-on-one chance in a small angle. Both teams had a lot of good chances, but they missed the chances. Michael Kim had a one-on-one chance, but missed it. David Kim had a ball in an empty spot, but he missed it as well. The blue team had an indirect free kick chance because Daniel Kim caught the ball that his teammate passed in a penalty area. However, the white missed the chance. Israel Kim got a yellow card because he pushed Andrew Kim too hard while defending against him at the corner kick area. In the 69th minute, Mr. Moorehead missed the pass of the white team, and John Choi stole the ball and scored the goal. Even though Isaac Cho gained a goal in the 75th minute, the game ended with the score of 7 to 6.

Everybody seemed happy and satisfied with the Jo'bulani that I brought. Everyone enjoyed the soccer game today. The players on both teams, scores, scorers, those who did hand ball, got yellow cards, and spoke Korean are as follows:

Man of the Match : Andrew Kim
Korean/ Hand : YJ Chung

White (FC Johnson) 6 Blue (Johnson Utd.) 7

(): Time " " : Own Goal

White (FC Johnson)	Blue (Johnson Utd.)
John Choi (15, 41, 69) Justin Jan (36) Isaac Cho (75)	Daniel Seo (3) YJ Chung (5) David Kim (20, 64) Michael Kim (35) Samuel Oh (42) Joshua Kim (65) "Noah Lee" (67)

Position Lists

White (FC Johnson)	Blue (Johnson Utd.)
GK: Daniel Kim	Gk: Mr. Moorehead
DF: David Park Samuel Choi Robert Yu Andrew Kim Matthew Sung	DF: Israel Kim Benjamin Lee David Lee Noah Lee Edward Yim
MF: Joseph Oh Philip Hong Benjamin Park Elijah Park	MF: Samuel Oh Daniel Seo David Kim YJ Chung Michael Kim Joshua Kim
FW: Isaac Cho John Choi Pastor Goh Justin Jung	FW: Paul Kim David Kim

Yellow Card : Israel Kim

- Eddy Yim

Medium

	7	1		3			6
		6	4				3
8								5
		4		1
		5	6		3	8
				7		2
9								1
	4				2	3
	3			8		4	5

Easy

		2			8	5		1
			3		5		6
4					9	8	2	3
							5	9
		4	5	8	1	6
2	1					7
8	2	9	1					4
	6		4		2
5		3	8			2

Hard

			9				5
3	6	9	4				2
				2			8
							9	6
		7		6		5
9	4
	9			7
	3				1	2	7	4
	5				8

Survey

Please Participate in this survey and turn it in to HR teacher on Monday.*

Choose foods with the number 1~5. Lower the number is, more you like. Ex) Fried Chicken [1]

If SCS sells food in the morning before HW and after school for those who could not eat breakfast and those who are hungry respectively, what kinds of foods would you eat?(1~5 from food section, 1~5 from drink section)

1. 여러종류과자 []	1. 울무차 []
2. 초콜렛 []	2. 핫초코 []
3. 존슨세트메뉴 []	3. 유자차 []
4. 머핀 []	4. 녹차 []
5. 쿠키 []	5. 레몬차 []
6. 도넛 []	6. 허브티 []
7. 찐빵 []	7. 커피(Hot/Cold) []
8. 참치샌드위치 []	8. 과일주스 []
9. 샐러드샌드위치 []	9. 아이스티 []
10. 땅콩버터샌드위치 []	10. 요구르트/요거트 []

*Johnson set menu includes combination of several chips (uncovered) and one drink.

* For tea, we will use tea bag. For other drinks such as hot chocolate, we will use powder.